UW-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title IX and ADA. To ensure equal access, please make requests for reasonable accommodations as soon as possible prior to the scheduled program service or activity. If you have questions on this program, please call the UW-Extension office at 608-297-3141.

As professionals, how we serve or engage parents who have experienced trauma, adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), or stressful challenges can help to promote the best possible outcomes for them and their children. Please join us to explore the Five Protective Factors, a research-based framework to guide services and support. Workshop facilitator is certified by the National Alliance of Children's Trust & Prevention Funds. Come to learn, refresh, reflect, and renew!
