Nancy Zieman 4-H Virtual Community Quilt Project & Nancy Zieman Documentary

In celebration of the upcoming premiere of the PBS Wisconsin documentary, Nancy Zieman: Extraordinary Grace, there will be a Nancy Zieman 4-H Virtual Community Quilt Project. Because Nancy's career in sewing was inspired by her youth participation in Wisconsin 4-H, all youth and adult quilters, sewists and fiber artists are invited to contribute a photo of a quilt block to the community quilt. In addition to the 6-1/2-inch fiber art square or quilt block, participants will also be including an artist statement detailing how Nancy and 4-H directed their fiber arts journey and/or career path. This virtual community quilt will be a photo collage and will be shared as part of the virtual experience. You'll also be able to scroll through and read stories from participants across the country whose lives have been impacted by Nancy and/or 4-H, at: <https://quiltshow.com/> Sept. 10-12, 2020.

To see quilt block examples and artist statements and participate in the 4-H Virtual Community Quilt Project, complete the FREE registration at: <https://quiltshow.com/>.

Documentary Screening

If you haven't already, please register to attend The Great Wisconsin Quilt Show screening of the documentary, Nancy Zieman: Extraordinary Grace, on Thursday, Sept. 10, 2020 at 7 p.m. at the Quilt Show website. Douglas Doers 4-H Club Finds Ways To Stay Connected

As COVID-19 continues to put a halt to many events, the Douglas Doers 4-H Club has found other ways to connect. The 4-H Club has had to stop having in-person meetings since the outbreak, but has found technology to be a saver. Using the video app Zoom, the Douglas Doers are still having their monthly meetings as usual. During meetings, the Club discusses recent community events and ways to stay connected. At each meeting, kids present demonstrations and tutorials to members. A member, Vannetta Helland, teaches members how to make an iced chai latte for a refreshing summer drink. Another member, Myla Telford, demonstrated how to take care of a horse properly. These Zoom 4-H meetings may be different, but they help the Club stay together and keep moving forward.
